

North Carolina Law Enforcement Planners & Crime Analysts Association

WHO Who are we?

The North Carolina Law Enforcement Planners & Crime Analysts Association was organized in 1979 to promote and improve the quality of law enforcement planning in North Carolina. Currently there are over 50 members from agencies across the state, both sworn and civilian personnel, who work in the areas of planning, crime analysis and grant writing.

ISSUES Discuss with us

The Association has conducted a bi-annual conference since its inception, offering high quality training for credit and a forum for information exchange. Recent topics include:

- Federal & state grant funds, where to find them & how to apply Community Oriented Policing from a planning perspective
- Recruitment & training: how to stay competitive and attractive
- Legislative & legal updates and issues
- Hot Spot Crime analysis techniques and usefulness
- Vehicle stop/Profiling issues

FORUM Exchange information

One of the most valuable aspects of the Association is the forum created for exchanging information, and the opportunity for cooperation and collaboration among North Carolina law enforcement agencies. Members learn first-hand what other agencies are doing, what can be replicated, and how to go about it.

JOIN Membership

Membership is open to employees of any county or municipal criminal justice agency in North Carolina who have responsibility for planning, crime analysis, research and technical support for law enforcement agencies at the state or local level.
