Who are we?

The North Carolina Law Enforcement Planners and Analysts Association were organized in 1979 to promote and improve the quality of law enforcement planning in North Carolina. Currently there are over 60 members from agencies across the state, both sworn and civilian personnel, who work in the areas of planning, crime analysis and grant writing.

Discuss with us....

The association has conducted a bi-annual conference since its inception, offering high quality training and a forum for information exchange.

Recent topics include:

- Legislative and Legal Updates
- Grants.GOV
- Gangs
- E-Citation
- COMPSTAT
- Performance-Based Budgeting
- Strategic Planning
